

Mt. Gretna Campmeeting News

"I wandered lonely as a cloud
that floats on high o'er vales and hills, when all at once I saw a crowd, a host, of golden daffodils; beside the lake,
beneath the trees, fluttering
and dancing in the breeze."

- WILLIAM WORDSWORTH

Revised Tree Rule

On March 27, the Board of Managers approved a change to MGCA's Rules and Regulations. Rule 16, the "Tree Rule", was revised and Part B of the Procedures for Violations, Penalties, Variances and Appeals was updated. The changes were effective immediately.

MGCA Members must submit and receive approval for a Tree Removal Permit before removing any tree. Taking down or removing trees, dead or alive, from personal and/or Campmeeting property without an approved permit from the Board of Managers is a significant violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Campmeeting and warrants a fine. Removal of a tree with a diameter of less than five inches and taller than three feet will incur a fine of $5,000 per tree. Removal of a tree with a diameter larger than five inches will incur a fine of $10,000 per tree. In addition, any legal fees incurred to collect this fine will be the financial responsibility of the Member.

Members are encouraged to contact the MGCA Office if they notice a dying or "sick" tree on their property, or Campmeeting's property.

The complete text of Rule 16 may be found on the MGCA website under By-Laws, Rules & Policies. Members may download the Tree Removal Permit from the MGCA website or contact the MGCA Office (Office@MtGretnaCampmeeting.org) to obtain a Tree Removal Permit.

Friendly Reminder–Building Permits

Spring is a popular time for Campmeeting property owners to make improvements and do work around their cottages. If you're considering doing any type of work on or around your cottage, you should first review the MGCA Rules and Regulations and Building Permit information under the By-Laws, Rules, and Policies tab on the MGCA website. MGCA rules require that Members have an approved MGCA building permit before starting work.

If you're still unsure if you need a permit or have questions, contact the Building & Grounds Committee by email through the MGCA Office at Office@MtGretnaCampmeeting.org. And please remember, simply submitting a Campmeeting Building Permit application does not constitute approval to perform work; permit applications must first be approved by the Board of Managers before work commences.

MGCA Members also must obtain all required building permits and comply with all applicable building codes as mandated by West Cornwall Township. If you're not sure whether you need a West Cornwall Township building permit, ask your contractor or the Lebanon County Planning Department at 717-228-4444 or West Cornwall's Zoning Officer, Jeff Steckbeck, at 717-269-1530.

One Book, One Community

We had a great turnout for the first discussion. Thank you to those who attended. If you missed the first session, please join us for the next one.

The Community Activities & Recreation Committee is excited to continue our "One Book, One Community" book discussion on April 10. We'll be discussing the next portion of I Never Thought of It That Way by Mónica Guzmán.

The discussion will continue in May and will be in person and/or via Zoom (you can choose which attendance format works best for you). Anyone from Mt. Gretna is welcome and we hope that our neighbors will help spread the word and join the discussion.

One Book, One Community
For the Mount Gretna Community

Please join us as we discuss how to have curious conversations on difficult topics.

When:
March 13, pages 1-98
April 10, pages 99-196
May 8, features a virtual visit discussion with author, Monica Guzman as we wrap up with pages 197-232.
Where: Mount Gretna United Methodist Church Ebenezer Room
Time: 7pm-8pm

As noted above, each month we'll be discussing a different part of the book. We're thrilled that author Mónica Guzmán will join the discussion on May 8.

To attend the May discussion virtually, please email the MGCA Office (office@mtgretnacampmeeting.org) by May 2 to request a Zoom link.

Readers Rejoice!

The Mt. Gretna Community Library will be open seven days a week this summer! You can peruse the collection every day this summer with the exception of Memorial Day (May 29), July 4th, Art Show Weekend (August 19 and 20), and Labor Day (September 4) when the Library will be closed.

The Library will open for the 2023 season on Saturday, May 27, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. There will be a “by donation” book sale to kick off the season. Be sure to stop by and stock up for the summer!

The Library will be open:

Monday through Friday: 10 a.m. to noon

Saturday and Sunday: 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Tuesday and Wednesday evenings: 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Book reviews will be held on select Monday evenings from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Check the Library for book titles and moderators for the reviews scheduled for:

June 5 and 19

July 3, 17, 31

August 7

In addition, on Wednesdays in July, the Library will host Children's Activities from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. Be sure to stop by and join the fun!

Get out your green thumbs

It is very hard to find native rhododendrons. Those in Campmeeting are fighting a serious fungus. The Board of Managers has authorized our arborist to apply treatments that should destroy or reduce the fungus.

In the meantime, as our existing plants regain their health, if you'd like to increase the rhododendrons around your cottage, you might want to consider propagating them. Azaleas are another beautiful native shrub that grows well in Campmeeting. Like rhododendrons, they are evergreens – both have beautiful flowers that would look wonderful next to your cottage. So, courtesy of Penn State University, here are the steps on how to propagate them.

Step-by-step propagation of rhododendrons and azaleas from cuttings

If you have a choice between varieties to propagate, the ones with smaller leaves tend to root more easily, but any varieties will root if you take enough care with them⁵.

Step 1. Get your tools and materials together. You'll need:

- A growing medium, roughly half peat moss and half perlite⁵. Commercial potting soil usually won't have enough perlite in it for the soil to drain properly, and your cuttings could rot before they have a chance to grow. If you use the bagged stuff, you're going to have to add more perlite anyway, so why not just mix your own?
- A container, or some containers, depending on how many cuttings you're working with. Any kind of box or flower pot-type thing will work, just make sure it's very clean.
- A very sharp blade. You can use a kitchen knife, shears, a utility knife, a razor blade—it doesn't matter as long as it's really sharp. And clean⁵.
- Some kind of rooting hormone. If you haven't used hormones before, the Dip 'N Grow liquid is widely available and has a 1% concentration of the rooting hormone, which is just about right for your rhododendron or azalea cuttings⁶.

Step 2. Choose a young upright branch, one that's light-colored and pliable⁵. Look for one without a bud, if you get a bud on your cutting, no problem, you can remove it later. Cut straight across the branch with your blade, about 3 to 6 inches from the tip. Remove the lowest leaves, and the bud, if it has one⁵. Your cuttings should look something like this:

STEP 2: Azalea Cuttings. Photo by Donald W. Hyatt

Step 3. Use your blade to strip about an inch of bark from the base of your cuttings. If your cuttings have large leaves (this will be the case with some rhododendrons), trim off the ends of the leaves. What you end up with should look something like this:

Step 4. Dip the tips of your cuttings into the rooting hormone, and stick the cuttings into your potting mix. You can put them pretty close to each other, because when their roots begin to grow you'll be moving them out of this container anyway.

Step 5. Find a place for your cuttings to live for a while—this could be up to a few months. They'll need to stay warm and have continual moisture. If you have a greenhouse with a misting system, you're in luck. Otherwise, you can use a sunny window, but be careful, because window sills can get cold at times. If you're not in a situation where you can mist them all the time, you may want to keep the cuttings covered with plastic—even a clear plastic bag over the container will work.

If you follow all of these steps, your cuttings should grow roots within a couple of months. Then you can plant them and watch them go!

Spring Leaf and Stick Collection

Regular leaf collection will resume later this month, continue until early June, then start again in the fall. Spring collection will be similar to collection procedures executed in the fall, and more details will be communicated soon.

Collection of sticks and other “green waste,” (sticks, branches, pinecones, root balls from potted plants, etc.) will also resume later in April but will continue periodically throughout the summer months.

- Leaf piles may contain leaves, pine cones and pine needles ONLY! *Pine cones can be in either the leaf pile or the sticks and green waste pile.
- Sticks and green waste MUST be placed in a separate pile!
- Both piles must be free of pet waste and foreign objects.
- Piles that do not meet these requirements will NOT be collected.

Water Tower Replacement Project Update

In March, a good portion of the supporting structure was built on the foundation. This involved setting forms for concrete and reinforcing steel, and pouring concrete. This process will continue into next month. Meanwhile, both electrical and mechanical work is being done in the pumphouse. The tank is being fabricated at the tank manufacturer's facility.

As mentioned previously, the mild winter weather remains in our favor and the project remains on target. We thank you for your water conservation efforts during this time when we are purchasing water from the Mt. Gretna Authority.

Earth Day in Campmeeting

9:00 a.m. Planting; 11:30 a.m. Potluck; 1:00 p.m. Open Forum

Join your neighbors for a morning of camaraderie and fun by participating in the 53rd annual Earth Day. We need your help to revitalize the Campmeeting after the winter season. We'll be planting trees around the Campmeeting and working in the community garden. Muscle will be needed as we'll be planting potted trees in three to five gallon tubs. Bring your energy, shovels, rakes and garden gloves – meet in the Church parking lot at 9:00 a.m.

After the planting is done, it will be time for eating! Join us at the Heritage Park Pavilion for a Community Potluck “Picnic”. Bring a dish to share with neighbors along with your own reusable utensils, plates, napkins, etc. The Potluck will run from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Finally, everyone is welcome to the Tabernacle at 1 p.m. for the quarterly Open Forum. This is not an official Board Meeting. Instead, it is an opportunity to have a conversation among Board Members, Committee Chairs, and community members. This event is voluntary for all Members, including Board Members and Committee Chairs, but please consider joining us.

Native Plants Bring a Mt. Gretna Landscape to Life

From Sarah Stuart–MGCA Tree Committee

In 1883, plans began to construct a railway from Lebanon to Cornwall, through the hills of Conewago to Elizabethtown. Robert Coleman formed a committee to plan stops along this railway. As they traveled west from Cornwall they discovered an area Robert Coleman described as, “a particularly lovely area of huge pines and hardwoods, springs and a profusion of wild flowers”. This beauty is what led this committee to plan one of many stops along the railway, now known as Mount Gretna.

As we enter the month of April and celebrate Earth Day on April 22nd, help Mount Gretna maintain the beauty that brought this community together. This can be accomplished by adding native plantings to your landscape. Natives are low maintenance, are less likely to require pesticides and they provide food and shelter for wildlife and beneficial insects.

Beneficial insects such as bees are in decline. Adding native plantings to your garden will help to support these important pollinators, as well as supporting the declining population of Monarch Butterflies. Check out the links below and begin planning your native garden today!
