Subject: Campmeeting Christmas Tree Bonfire

Campmeeting Christmas Tree Bonfire

Tuesday, January 31, 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m.

- Hosted by MGCA Superintendent Nate Godfrey.
- Bonfire and Christmas tree burning to celebrate the end of the holiday season.
- Location: Behind the garages on 1st Street at the Campmeeting Maintenance Office. Park in the Carter lot.
- This is a Campmeeting event, but the greater Gretna community is welcome. If attendees are not from Campmeeting, they're welcome to bring their Christmas tree for burning. The Fire Company will also be attending and providing fire safety and protection.
- Bring your own smores, marshmallows, hot dogs, etc. for cooking over the fire. We will have a few hot dog sticks but we encourage everyone to bring their own.
- Bring your own drinks. Adult beverages are welcome.
- Bring a chair and flashlight if you wish
- Wear appropriate footwear. Dirt and leaves are present.
- Donations for the Fire Company are welcome but not required.
